CONTRIBUTED FOR GOOD OF PEOPLE

J. P. Morgan Says He Aided G. O. P. Campaign Without Expectation of Return

AVE $150,000 TO COLONEL Financier Admits Big Donation to Roosevelt Funds in Year 1904

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Facing a senatorial inquiry for the first time in his career, Money King J. P. Morgan told the Clapp committee today that his $150,000 contributions to the 1904 republican campaign were made "for the good of the people" and "without any expectation of any return."

Morgan's assumption of the role of philanthropist came as the emphatic climax of a long series of questions as to the various financial and railroad interests which contributed to the Roosevelt fund.

"I want it distinctly understood," the financier finally declared raising his voice above the ordinary conversational tone with which he had been testifying, "that J. P. Morgan and Company never made a single subscription with any promise or expectation of any return, and never unless we deemed it advantageous to the government, and the people."

"We never had any applications from any candidate. We only subscribed for the good of the people and the country. We never got any return and never expected any."

"We were all in harmony. It was necessary for the good of the country. We never expected any return and we never got any return either," he repeated.

Morgan said he made two separate contributions one of $100,000 on Oct. 24, 1904, and on November 1st $50,000. The last named was donated, he testified, "because of the necessities of the New York state situation."

"Was there any intention to support the democratic nominee?" "If I'd thought it better for the country, I'd have done it," said Mr. Morgan.

Morgan said he understood that Cornelius N. Bliss, former Governor of New York, and Chairman of the 1904 committee, were trying to raise an additional fund of $250,000—the amount of the "Harriman fund"—in November 1904, but that $50,000 was all he could afford.

Thirty thousand dollars was Morgan's contribution to the 1908 republican coffers, he declared.

The financier emphatically denied that there ever was any combination of Wall street interests in political work. He admitted having frequent conferences at which politics was discussed with Harriman, President Mellen of the New Haven railroad and others including his partner, George W. Perkins, then head of the Equitable Life Insurance company, but the money baron took pains to make it understood that he never expected any financial or any other return. He did say he "perhaps might have thought of being benefited," but he followed this with the critical observation: "Gratitude is a scarce commodity. I have found."

He said the republicans sent Bliss to him when they wanted any money. When asked why Cortelyou visited him, he said: "I suppose he came for more money," and he grinned when he finished the remark.

Just fifty-five minutes was the length of Morgan's examination. He appeared surprised when released so soon. He gave his testimony with apparent readiness. Only once, or

UNIONS ISSUE IN DYNAMITE TRIAL

Juror Excused When He Admits He Refuses to Hire a Union Worker

TALESMEN MUST TELL STAND

Every Prospective Juror Is Asked How He Stands on Rights of Labor

FEDERAL COURT ROOM, INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 3.—The "open shop" versus labor unionism, already has taken its place as the sharply defined and unmistakable issue in the dynamite conspiracy trials, and Judge Anderson gave it recognition when he discarded a juror who said he refused to hire union labor "when he knew it."

The examination of talesmen today resolved itself into questioning as to "the right of employers to run their business to suit themselves, without outside interference," against "the right of workmen to organize for their protection."

When the hearing was resumed today, two of the second venire of fifty men were in the jury box for examination.

The defense had exhausted five of thirteen peremptory challenges and the government two of their six.

Nine peremptory challenges were left altogether, which made it a matter for doubt that the jury would be obtained during the day.

When the examination of veniremen was resumed today, the government rejected three men because they admitted they had strong opinions that the indicted men were guilty.

Charles G. Foreman, of Muncie, Ind., said that he was prejudiced against the forty-eight defendants because Ortie McManis, the informer, concealed a large quantity of dynamite and nitro-glycerine behind his house. The explosive, he said, was discovered concealed in a barn in the rear of his premises, which prejudiced him against the accused men. He was excused.

The twelve men selected as jury-men are: Samuel Morrison, North Vernon; James N. Smith, Winchester; Seneca Chambers, Anderson; William Jackson, Greencastle; Marion E. Dobblins, Maxwell; Frank Dorem, New Lisbon; Jacob Towns, Jamestown; Allen Spaulding, Sharpsville; Martin P. Davis, Forest; T. B. Brookshire, Rochdale; Frank Sutton, Nebraska; Jessie D. Barger, Ridgeville.

T. R. SPENDS QUIET DAY

OYSTER BOY, N. Y., Oct. 3.—After a quiet day's rest with his family, Col. Roosevelt expected to hold a conference at dinner this evening with Senator Dixon, O. K. Davis, George W. Perkins and State Chairman Hotchkiss. He will leave at mid-night for Washington, where he is scheduled to testify tomorrow in the senate campaign contribution inquiry.

Folk of Missouri Opens the Southern Minnesota Democratic Campaign Today

HE FLAYS MR. ROOSEVELT

Declares Third Term Is Demagogue Playing to Galleries All the Time

OWATONNA, Minn., Oct. 3.—A huge crowd gathered here when ex-Governor Joseph Folk of Missouri arrived here to open the democratic campaign in southern Minnesota, speaking for both state and national tickets. Folk was in fine form and gave a scathing arraignment of Roosevelt.

"The bull moose party has but one issue," said the speaker, "and that one issue is engaged in parading around the country denouncing every man who disagrees with him. Absolutism in America is not far distant if a man of that sort can be chosen for our highest office."

"Woodrow Wilson stands for the best in American politics. He stands for betterment of conditions everywhere. He is unalterably opposed to the rule of the few, the rule under which we have virtually been for the past ten years."

"For the pure reformer, the man who does things because they are for the people's good, I have the highest admiration, but for the demagogue who plays to the galleries continually and whose one thought is that of personal advancement I have nothing but contempt. It is the height of inconsistency to think that a man could stand for the people and at the same time stand sponsor for the head of one of the greatest trusts in America."

CONFESS ATTACK ON GIRL

JANESVILLE, Wis., Oct. 3.—Harry Berger, 18, and Edward Meyer, 12, today confessed to the police that they made a criminal attack upon Mathilda Bergstern, who was found dead two days ago. They admitted that they were with her when she died. The girl's father who was arrested and charged with murder will likely be released later today. The Meyer boy's face still bore marks of scratches received in the struggle with the girl.

MANY AT McLAREN FUNERAL

Many friends and relatives attended the funeral of Mrs. John McLaren, which was held from the residence, 117 North Fourth street, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. D. C. Jones officiated at the services. The pallbearers were E. S. Hebbard, Frank O. Chamberlain, Edmund E. Kroner, John E. Hauser, Joseph Wolf and W. E. Winter.

ULTIMATUM SENT TO THE MOSLEMS

Balkan Alliance Gives Turkey Three Days to Grant Autonomy to Its Provinces

TO STRIKE BULGARIA FIRST

Plans of Crescent Troops Indicate They Will Deal First with Ferdinand

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The Greek legation here received a cablegram from Athens stating that the government had issued an order to mobilize troops to join with Bulgaria, Serbia, Montenegro, against Turkey. The Greek charge d'affaires is seeking recruits from Greeks who have emigrated to this country. He requested the United Press today to announce that all Greek subjects in this country who so desire are requested to return home and take up arms for the fatherland.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 3.—The Bulgarian, Servian, Montenegrin and Greek ministers today presented a joint ultimatum to Turkey. They demanded autonomy for Macedonia, Albania, Servia and Crete within three days. If at that time Turkey had not complied with the demand, a second ultimatum will be delivered. Simultaneously the powers will be notified unless the Turks yield at the end of the second three days, the quadruple alliance will begin hostilities.

The Ottoman bank officials profess to have news that a Turkish-Italian peace pact has all but been signed.

The porte today refused compliance with Greece's demand for the surrender of the Greek ships seized in Turkish waters.

The ministers here from Servia, Belgrade, Cetinje and Athens claimed vigorously that Turkish officials are mutilating telegrams from their respective governments.

The Roumanian minister assured the sultan that his country will remain absolutely neutral in the event of a Balkan war.

TURKEY WANTS PEACE

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The foreign office has received a dispatch from Sir Gerald Lowther, British ambassador to Turkey, it was stated on excellent authority today, saying Turkey will not fight unless forced to do so.

Sir Gerald added that the sultan is willing to introduce reforms in Macedonia under supervision of the powers' ambassadors, but that the work is necessarily slow in such a country, and cannot be accomplished as speedily as the quadruple alliance insists.

Turkey's military preparations indicate a determination to strike first and hardest at Bulgaria, in the event of hostilities. It is said that the Constantinople war office believes a few regiments will be enough to deal with Greece.

Constantinople messages say the Turks are showing a fine spirit of patriotism, all factions forgetting their domestic differences to resist aggression from outside. If Turkey closes peace terms with Italy, military experts think it will make short work of the quadruple alliance.

Bulgaria, Servia, Montenegro and Greece are all raking the money markets of Europe for loans, apparently without success.

SEIZE TURKISH SUPPLIES

BELGRADE, Servia, Oct. 3.—The Servian government today seized several carloads of Turkish munitions and three Turkish aeroplanes, in retaliation for Turkey's detention of Servian munitions on their way through Turkish territory.

NEAR ITALIAN PEACE

LA SUANNE, Switzerland, Oct. 3.—The Turkish and Italian representatives reached an agreement today on the main terms of a peace treaty. It is momentarily expected it will be signed.

Threatened with attack by the Balkan quadruple alliance, it was obviously important for Turkey to end the struggle with Italy. Italy, however, also had reasons for giving Turkey a free hand in the Balkans. Should the Ottoman empire disintegrate, Italian interests will require the acquisition of Albania. It is doubtful if it would get it, for Austria would want the same territory. In an international Balkan struggle, Italy, the weakest of the powers, would be sure to suffer.

Consequently, for the present, at least, it prefers everything left as it is. Diplomats surmise, therefore, that it has treated Turkey generously.

Servian Fighting Reported

VIENNA, Oct. 3.—That a Turkish battalion has crossed the frontier into Servia, and been driven back by a Servian regiment after a sharp conflict, was reported here today. A message from Montenegro says the schools there were all closed today, that the wildest martial enthusiasm prevailed, that mobilization was progressing at top speed and that a law had been passed authorizing the government to commandeer private property for military purposes.

CONTROVERSY IS PUT TO BANCROFT TO BE SETTLED

E. J. Kneen Asks Attorney General for Ruling on Eligibility of Candidates

EXPECT DECISION TOMORROW

Chairman of County Committee Believes Ruling Will Be Like Thompson's

CAMPAIGN OPENS TONIGHT

Wolfe and Coffland to Speak at West Salem Rally This Evening

The question of whether the seven democratic and three republican candidates for office in La Crosse county are disqualified by their failure to file expense accounts because of the fact that they had incurred no expense during the primary campaign or because of their failure to file complete statements, has been taken to Attorney General L. H. Bancroft for ruling. The request for a decision was sent to the attorney general today by E. J. Kneen, chairman of the democratic committee.

Feels Confident

"As far as am personally concerned," said Mr. Kneen today, "I am satisfied that District Attorney James Thompson's ruling that the filing of an expense account is not required by the corrupt practices act, when no expense has been incurred by the candidates, is correct. But in order that whatever doubt remains may be set at rest, I thought it best to get a ruling from the attorney general. I wrote him a statement of the conditions today and expect a decision tomorrow."

Chairman Kneen refused to take the position assumed by certain other democrats that the discovery of the failure of the candidates to file their expense accounts was the result of a republican "plot" or "trick" to put the democrats in a hole. "That kind of talk is all rot," he said. "I don't believe there is anything to it."

Chairman Kneen and Secretary A. H. Schubert are busily engaged in establishing the democratic county committee headquarters in their new location and the two rooms that will be used for that purpose are fast assuming a businesslike appearance. Desks, telephones and other furniture are being installed and all will be ready for business by this evening. The headquarters are located at 213 Main street in the same building as Mahoney and Schubert's law offices.

Rally Tonight

The democratic speaking campaign will open with a big rally at West Salem tonight. Five automobiles will take the La Crosse party to the neighboring city. W. N. Coffland, candidate for congress, and William F. Wolfe will be the speakers of the evening. Mr. Coffland will speak on the national issues and Mr. Wolfe will discuss the state situation. Berne Mow of West Salem will preside at the meeting.

BEER MAKES MUTE TALK

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 3.—After a furlough of one day which he spent away from the Mendota hospital for insane, Charles Bodoin was taken back to the institution today. He came back an indefinite stay, because after five months of being deaf and dumb he drank three glasses of beer and became as loquacious as a political campaign orator.

Bodoin, when he came to the hospital posed as a mute. He did not know any sign language, but the hospital attendant believed his affliction was genuine. Yesterday he was released to visit relatives in Watertown, Wis. G. H. Hanson, parole agent of the hospital, saw him enter three saloons and take a glass of beer in each. Then he broke his five months silence and Hanson took him in custody to return him to the institution today.

VAN HISE CHECKS HAZING

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 3.—President Charles R. Van Hise spoiled the annual freshmen-sophomore class rush here today for the motion picture men, when he learned that by mutual agreement members of the two classes had agreed to put on a special lake ducking stunt for the photographers. In the president's ultimatum issued at noon today he declared that nothing would be permitted that resembled the old Wisconsin hazing bees.

TRY LABOR TREASURER

RACINE, Wis., Oct. 3.—J. C. Peterson, former treasurer of the Trades and Labor council, will be tried on Monday on the charge of embezzlement. He admits he lost the money, $1,000, in a co-operative store, but says it was invested there at the suggestion of the labor council.

STATE SERVICES MORE EFFICIENT

Secretary of State Says Better Results Are Obtained More Economically

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 3.—In reply to an inquiry from one of the candidates for state office who wished to have some specific information on the difference between comparative expenses of state administration within the past ten years, Secretary of State Frear has furnished the inquirer with the following statement: "You can put it down as a safe proposition that every department in the state service today has greater efficiency and gives better results than ever before in the history of the state. There are no useless employees or hangers on today in state service lists. No favoritism occurs today in appointments, and work is performed in certain departments more economically than ever before as can be shown by one or two specific cases.

Increase 400 Per Cent
"In the year 1902 there were written in the state department 17,000 warrants. Ten years later, in 1912, 74,555 warrants were written, an increase of more than 400 per cent. There was no automobile business in 1902. During 1912, 24,000 licenses have been issued. The state audit work has increased proportionately with the number of warrants and the automobile work which is entirely new to the office. The corporation work in 1902 was normal. Since annual reports have been required, together with a natural increase in business and in revenues, this work has far more than doubled. The same proportionate increase runs through all the different branches of the state department. In 1902, 21 clerks were employed in the state department. Two regular clerks have been added during the ten year period, making 23 in all. These clerks have performed all the duties of the office excepting during a brief period when the automobile work was congested. The state treasurer's office employed 9 clerks in 1902. In 1912 only 8 clerks were required to perform the work of that department, a reduction of one clerk within the period although the work of that department has more than doubled within the ten years. The legislature of 1901 employed 211 clerks, messengers and other employees. In 1911 under a progressive administration, the number had been reduced to 91."

SHREDDER RULES ARE MADE PUBLIC

Industrial Commission in Bulletin Tells How to Avoid Husking Accidents

GIVES LIST OF 19 CASES

Publication Contains Accounts of Nineteen Serious Accidents to Farmers

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 3.—Before the corn husking season begins in November, farmers of Wisconsin will receive a bulletin designed to save them the loss of arms, hands, fingers, etc., in the deadly corn husking or corn shredding machine. Under statutes of the last two legislatures the industrial commission is charged with the duty of enforcing the law which required that corn shredders and corn huskers shall be guarded. The commission has been successful so far in stopping absolutely the importation into Wisconsin of unguarded machines, but the present time it is estimated that there are nearly a thousand huskers, shredders and feed grinders so dangerously lacking in proper safe-guards that human lives are constantly in peril, not to mention arms, hands and fingers. These machines were sold in Wisconsin before the edict against unguarded machines was issued.

Is Unique

The forthcoming bulletin of the commission will be unique in many ways. It will contain the results of an investigation made early this month of nineteen serious corn shredder accidents. The nineteen victims of these accidents were seen personally and interviewed. Every one of the nineteen maimed victims of agricultural machinery admitted that the accident which lessened his efficiency could have been prevented by ordinary care.

The lesson to be drawn by farmers from the corn shredder bulletin is obvious in the extreme. In this bulletin the industrial commission cautions greater care on the part of operators of unguarded machines. It also tells how these machines may be made less dangerous by the attachment of simple guards. Like other bulletins of the industrial commission, the new publication is issued with a view to saving life and limb. The pamphlet will contain information regarding 59 serious accidents on huskers and shredders and 35 accidents on feed grinders.

Exhaustive investigation was made in the nineteen serious cases, a deputy of the commission visiting the injured persons, and also the owners of the machines. The stories told by the nineteen victims are graphic in their simplicity.

Caught in Rolls

No. 1, for instance says: "I got up on the machine to oil the rolls while the engine was running. I found that the oil cups were filled with snow and was cleaning them out, when I lost my balance and fell. My arm was caught in the rolls and cut off four inches below the elbow. Gangrene set in and the arm was removed at the shoulder."

This man is 42 years of age and had had several years of experience. He admitted that the accident was due solely to his own carelessness; that if he had used a stick to remove the snow from the oil cups, the accident could not have happened.

"The snapping rolls became clogged and I was trying to release the snapping rolls with a frozen corn stalk, when a bundle came along and pushed my hand into the rolls," says No. 2. His hand was cut off at the wrist.

Investigation in this case showed that a hood extending over the rolls had been removed. If this hood had not been removed, the accident could not have happened.

No. 4 says he attempted to unclog the husking rolls with a piece of frozen corn stalk three feet long. A corn stalk which had both ends caught in the rolls, formed a loop, and catching his hand, dragged it into the rolls. The arm was cut off three inches below the elbow.

No. 4 is twenty three years old, and warns fellow farmers to use a stalk at least five feet long to unclog the husking rolls.

Should Have Used Stick

No. 8 says that if he had used a stick instead of his mitted hand to unclog the rolls, he would now have two hands. He has only one, however, at this time and his efficiency practically is cut in half.

"I had just begun feeding the machine," says No. 16, "when suddenly my feet slipped on the frosty foot board, and in throwing out my hand to catch myself, my left hand was caught in the snapping rolls."

No. 16 lost three fingers and hair of the thumb and might have lost his whole arm if his other hand had not stopped the machine. He is 21 years old and has worked on shredders since the age of 14. Every one of the nineteen cases which the commission investigated give unmistakable evidence that the lives and limbs of farmers and their sons and all farm workers may be saved from the deadly grip of the corn shredder if intelligent care is maintained. In the analytical result of its inquiry the commission gives to the farmers the following rules:

Formulates Rules

1. Never use the hands to unclog the rolls. Use a long stick or else stop the machine while the rolls are unclogged. Eight men were caught in the rolls while attempting to unclog them with the hands.

2. Every husker and shredder should be equipped with a self-feeder. The feeder then will not have to stand within reach of the rolls. Fifteen arms and hands would have been saved if self-feeders had been provided.

3. On every husker and shredder where it is possible for the operator to get caught in the snapping rolls, a safety lever should be provided. This lever should be attached so that the body of the feeder will strike it if his hands are caught in the rolls. This device would have prevented eight accidents.

4. When the feeder stands within reach of the snapping rolls, it is always dangerous to cut hands while feeding, especially if the knife is tied to the wrist.

5. The foot board should always be kept free from ice or snow. Two men slipped and lost their hands.

6. Every gear can be covered so that it will be impossible for hands to be caught. Nine men had their hands caught in gears.

7. Every sprocket should be guarded at the point where the chain runs on it.

8. Belts are exceedingly dangerous and should be guarded, especially at the point where they run on to the pulley. Hundreds of men are injured every year on belts and pulleys.

The reason is plain when a change is made from coffee to

"Of late years coffee has disagreed with me," writes a friend from Rome, N. Y.

"The heaviest was when it upset my stomach completely, destroying my appetite and making me nervous and irritable, and sent me to my bed. After one of these attacks, in which I nearly lost my life, I concluded to quit the coffee and try Postum."

"It went right to the spot! I found it not only a most palatable and refreshing beverage, but a food as well."

"All my ailments, the 'loginess' and dizziness, the unsatisfactory condition of my blood, my nervousness and irritability disappeared in short order and my sorely afflicted stomach began quickly to recover. Quips and Cranks
and Wanton Wiles

The Subject Eternal
They harp upon it every day
And have for decades past,
Of all the campaign arguments,
It is the first and last.

It hangs around like Banquo's ghost
And won't be scared away.
It is the thing they argue most
Throughout the entire fray.

Nobody understands it well
And most folks not at all,
But still it is the subject on
Which all the speakers bawl.

They've fought it out for years and years;
They've argued day and night;
But still it doesn't seem as though They'll ever fix it right.

They're at it once again this year,
They will forget it never,
For men may come and men may go,
But the tariff goes on forever.

Jim's Reply

Two Scotsmen, while dining at a Dublin restaurant, had an argument about the meaning of the word "nothing." They were leaving the establishment, each dissatisfied with the other's definition, when one of them suggested that they should refer the dispute to Jim, the waiter. Turning back, they submitted their two definitions to Jim, asking him which one he considered to be the more exact. "Indeed," said Jim, assuming a judicial air, "they're both very clever, but I could give you a better one." "What is it?" the Scotsmen asked, smiling incredulously. Relaxing his gravity somewhat Jim replied:—"Nothing is what a Scotsman gives to a waiter." They had not tipped him, and they rewarded his ingenuity by disproving his definition.

He Answered Him

The testy old gentleman forced to wait an hour at a wayside station was bemoaning his fate, when a mild-mannered countryman strolled into the station and commenced to converse. Looking at the many labels on the visitor's bag, he began:

"You've traveled about quite a bit?"

"Yes."

"Ever seen a Chinese?"

"Heaps of times."

"Ever seen a Jap?"

"Yes."

"Ever seen a Jew?"

"Often."

"Ever seen a—"

The testy old gentleman could stand it no longer, and, rising to his full height, shouted in stentorian tones:

"Did you ever see a fool?"

The mild-mannered one let his keen eye rest on the irate traveler a moment, then in a sweet, low voice, replied:

"Yes, I have."

Faithful Duty

He was an immaculate servant. To watch him serve a salad was to watch an artist at work. To hear his subdued accents was a lesson in the art of voice-production. He never slipped, he never smiled, and his mutton chop whiskers marked him as one of the old and faithful stock. But one evening, to the surprise of his master, he showed unaccountable signs of nervousness. When the chicken came on, he confused it with the pheasant. He served everything in the wrong order, made blunder after blunder, and put a final touch to his shame by upsetting the salt over the only superstitious member of the party. Then, at last, when the ladies had retired to the drawing room he touched his master on the shoulder.

"I beg your pardon, sir," he said in a respectful undertone, "but could you manage to spare me now? My house is on fire."

Nothing Startling

An old game keeper who was known as a pastmaster in the gentle art of extracting a substantial tip from a departing sportsman was saying "Good-bye" to a young gentleman who had been shooting over the estate on which he was employed.

"Well, good-bye, John!" said the young man, who did not claim to be a crack shot. "I've not made a very big bag; but of course you are in no way to blame for that. However, I've thoroughly enjoyed myself."

"Glad to hear it, sir!" responded John. "As you say you've not done anything very startling, but then there's compensations."

"Indeed! What are they?"

"Well," said John slowly, "the birds may question your aim, and the other gentlemen may question your wisdom in wasting cartridges, but no one can question your liberality!"

Easily Explained

They were lodging in a Highland cottage, and their cupboard was well stocked with good, after dinner wines. One day the sherry bottle was found uncorked, and on the following day it had again been "tapped." They determined to set a trap. Brown had some old with this sherry wine, and with this the sherry was soon diluted. Notwithstanding this, the wine grew less day by day, and at last the bottle was empty.

Then the lodgers chuckled and prepared to interview the landlady.

"I am sorry to complain," said Brown to her, "but surely the empty state of the bottle requires some explanation."

"Well, sir," said the good wife, "it's easy enough explained. The gentleman who was here before you liked a glass of sherry in his soup, and so I've been giving you a glass in yours."

"We can arrest 'em and get a fine anyway," said the taller of the two, and the other agreed.

The Watermelon leaned forward with languid interest, his hat on the back of his head. "How d'ye do?" he drawled. "What are you doing with the pogons?"

"Hunting," grinned the spokesman pleasantly.

"Any luck?" asked the Watermelon.

"Bet cher life!" said the man. "Got what we were after."

"Bear?" asked the Watermelon innocently.

"Autos," said the man.

"Sir," began the general. He felt a pressure on his shoulder so firm, that, irritated, he turned to remonstrate with Henrietta. One could not explain the situation with any degree of pride in the first place, still less so, if some one behind apparently endeavoring to suppress one.

The Watermelon frowned. "We weren't breaking any speed limit, unless the snail is the standard you regulate your speed laws by." The men no longer believed that they had caught the thief, but if they insisted on taking the party before a magistrate, each would have to give his name. With the general present, fictitious names would only be so much waste of breath, and the Watermelon had no desire to give his assumed name to any one in the employ of the law.

"Now," sneered the man, spitting with gusto. "There're other things to break besides speed laws."

"Yes," agreed the Watermelon, "your empty head."

"Now, don't get sassy," warned the man, growing angry. "I'm an officer of the law and I'm not going to take any of your sass."

"An officer of the law can't arrest a law-abiding citizen," snapped the Watermelon with righteous indignation.

"Law-abiding?" jeered the man.

"What have we done?"

"Try to guess," suggested the man pleasantly and the other laughed.

"I can't guess," said the Watermelon. "Is it for riding through the cow lane? We didn't hurt the lane any. I rode through this same lane last summer and the Browns didn't kick up any row over it. In fact, they were with me, that is, Dick and Lizzie were."

The man stared and the Watermelon frowned coldly.

"Do you know the Browns?" demanded the fellow.

"Not very well," admitted the Watermelon. "I was through here last summer and stopped over night at their place. They were fine people, all right. They told me if I ever came this way again to drop in and I said I would. It was a sort of joke. They gave me a latch-key. He drew a key from his pocket and held it out as proof of his integrity."

"Huh," said the man dully, gazing from the key to the Watermelon.

The second man took it. "Which door does it fit?" he asked.

"The front door," said the Watermelon promptly. "Go try it if you want proof."

"Not so fast," said the second man, who had taken the affair into his own hands. "If you know the Browns, tell me something about them? No, you chuffer feller, hold on, back there. Don't try to slip by, for you can't. You automobilists think that the Lord created Heaven and earth for your benefit and then rested on the seventh day and has been resting ever since. That's better. Now, then—" turning again to the Watermelon—"how many in the family?"

"How many?" queried the Watermelon. "I don't know. I only saw Ma and Pa and the three kids, Dick and Lizzie and Sarah. Sarah was a young lady about twenty, if I remember rightly; Lizzie was eight and Dick was a bit older, ten or twelve—twelve, I think he said. I remember his birthday came in January, anyway."

"Well, goldarn it," laughed the first man, thoroughly convinced.

"Well, say, ain't we the easy marks?"

"Don't blame yourselves," said the Watermelon gently. "Father used to say that anything colossal, even stupidity, was worthy of admiration."

"What did Dick look like?" demanded the second man, loath to give up.

The Watermelon straightened up. "See here, my man," said he sternly, "we are in a hurry. You have detained us long enough. I have told you as much as I am going to about the Browns. It's a year ago this summer that I was there and I haven't been dwelling on their beautiful countenances in rapt and joyful contemplation ever since. I have seen a few people during the interval. Dick was fairly good looking, but Lizzie was the cutest. I took them through the cow lane to show them how they could go for the cows in a motor-car, farming up-to-date, see. Now move aside and let us pass, please."

"No, you don't," returned the man sharply. "Let that chuffer feller in the back car come up to the house with me while I try this key. Tom, you keep the others here, till I come back."

The Watermelon leaned back wearily indifferent and drew out his cigarette papers. Alphonse climbed obediently from the car,

"We can arrest 'em and get a fine anyway," said the taller of the two, and the other agreed.

The Watermelon leaned forward with languid interest, his hat on the back of his head. "How d'ye do?" he drawled. "What are you doing with the pogons?"

"Hunting," grinned the spokesman pleasantly.

"Any luck?" asked the Watermelon.

"Bet cher life!" said the man. "Got what we were after."

"Bear?" asked the Watermelon innocently.

FISHERMEN RESENT SEINING SLOUGHS

Good Fishing Places Said to Be Spoiled by the Steamer
Curlew

North side fishermen are incensed today following the report that the government steamer Curlew is seining in Colman slough and taking fish from that water for the propagating of the clams along the river. As this slough is a convenient one in that it is located near the city, many fishermen from La Crosse go there to fish, but the seining, it is said, will spoil the fishing.

The work of propagating the clams along the river was started this year and for this purpose the sloughs were to be seined to secure fish. However, it is said, that the North side fishermen resent the seining which is being done in Colman slough, as a good fishing place is thus spoiled. The slough is easily reached from this city and many fishermen went there, but the number of fish will be greatly decreased by the seining.

The permit to seine sloughs along the river for clam propagating purposes was issued to the Curlew by the state game commission about three months ago.

NORTH SIDE "COP" MARATHON SPRINT

Dan Deneen, veteran north side policeman, started in training for the 1916 Olympic games this morning and the routers on the side lines who saw him dashing down St. Cloud street in pursuit of a prisoner cheered him loudly.

Deneen had noticed Tom Miller loafing about the north side all morning and towards noon when he saw him walking up Mill street he went over to investigate. Miller no sooner saw him coming than he started to run. The two rounded the corner of St. Cloud and Mill streets at a terrific pace with Miller leading and Deneen some distance behind but coming in hot pursuit. A large crowd was attracted. Miller led the race towards the river but he had not gone far before the patrolman had caught up with him and then led him to the station.

Restoring Value to Rubber.

People using articles made of rubber that frequently lose their elasticity through oxidation may restore the material to its original condition by a simple process. Soak the part in a mixture of one part of ammonia to two parts water. This is particularly well adapted to the restoring of rubber bands, rings and small tubing which are ready to become dry and brittle.

"The only helps toward success that I have ever found worth while are, first, to have a purpose and then a willingness to work for it. That is the main thing. CARS DERAILED NEAR PORTAGE

Passenger Trains Delayed by Spill During the Night; No One
Injured

The derailment of eight freight cars on the C. M. & St. P. railroad near Portage during the night was responsible for the delaying of passenger trains Nos. 15 and 57 today each of which was late several hours in arriving in La Crosse. The freight cars being thrown from the tracks and being damaged before the passenger trains got past, held both trains back with the result that No. 15, which is due here at 6:15 in the morning did not arrive until 8:30, two hours and fifteen minutes late, while No. 57, due to arrive here at 4:05 a. m., was three hours and ten minutes behind the scheduled time as it did not reach the city until 7:15. The wreckage has now been cleared up and the trains are now running on scheduled time.

One car was thrown from the tracks at River Junction today but little damage was done and the traffic was not delayed.

MARBLE IN LAMPS

BERLIN, Oct. 3.—Patents have just been taken out for using marble instead of glass in lamps, which has the effect of making the illumination scarcely distinguishable from daylight. Innumerable experiments have been made with tinted and patterned types of glass with the idea of producing this effect but all have been failures. As a last resource a sheet of white marble was planed down until it was semi-transparent and then different intensities of light were shown from behind. The result was exactly what so many hundreds of experiments had failed to produce. Developing this discovery the patentees have fitted lights to the cornice of a room with such success that it is difficult to assume that it is artificially lighted.

START CLUBS FOR GIRLS AT CHAPELS

Exhibitions were given at Bethany Chapel, Ninth and Tyler streets, on Monday night and at Colton Chapel, Fifteenth and Winnebago streets on Tuesday night. Considerable interest was shown in the work at Bethany and Grace chapels, and clubs are to be started among the girls at these chapels next week. This work is designed to reach girls who by reason of the distance or other causes cannot attend the classes at the association building.

SAGE TEA WILL
DARKEN THE HAIR
Restore Faded and Gray
Hair to Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

There is nothing new about the idea of using Sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our grandmothers kept their hair dark, glossy and abundant by the use of a simple "Sage Tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of Sage leaves, and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves; and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing Sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

This preparation gives youthful color and beauty to the hair, and is one of the best remedies you can use for dandruff, dry, feverish, itching scalp, and falling hair. Get a fifty-cent bottle from your druggist today, and you will be surprised at the quick results. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. O. T. Erhart.—

which he prided himself—tenacity, courage and toughness.

twice perhaps, did he hesitate over his answers, and then only regarding names and dates.

Clapp notified Morgan that his presence here, "might possibly be required again." Mr. Morgan did not make any comment.

First Time on Stand
For the first time in his life, J.
P. Morgan underwent a witness stand grilling today before a congressional investigation committee. Morgan arrived here last night to be ready for his unique experience.

Strict orders were given to admit no one within hailing distance of his suite. His private secretary was an efficient buffer to the curious.

Morgan's testimony was expected to have a direct bearing on that yesterday of George R. Sheldon, 1908 treasurer of the republican national committee. Sheldon said he saw the books of C. N. Bliss, his predecessor in 1904, and that it listed donations to the Roosevelt fund of $100,- 000 each from Morgan, Henry C.
Frick, George J. Gould and John D.
Archbold.

Sheldon said of the $1,900,000 of contributions listed by Bliss, where records were later destroyed, 73 1-2 per cent came from corporations.
This statement promised considerable testimony tomorrow from Roosevelt.
The committee digested today the testimony of Dixon, Roosevelt campaign manager, who said he received about $95,000 or $96,000, in addition to the $144,000 received by the bull moose treasurer, E. H.
Hooker.

Morgan was sworn by Senator
Clapp.

"John Pierpont Morgan, 219 Madison avenue, New York, banker," was Morgan's first statement.

"Did you contribute to the republican campaign of 1904?" asked Clapp.

"In October I contributed $100,- 000 and on the first of November $50,000 additional," replied the banker.

"Did you contribute any more?"
"None that I know of."
"To whom did you make these contributions?"

"I assume to Mr. Bliss. I do not recall the actual payment, but my records show it that way. The payments were made in money," Morgan continued.

"Did Harriman solicit any contributions?"
"Never approached by Harriman."
"I do not believe Mr. Harriman ever made any solicitation to me."

"Did you know of another contribution of $194,000?" asked Clapp.
"I do not."

"Did you make any congressional contribution in 1904?"
"I do not remember any."

Morgan read from a prepared list his account of contributions.

"In 1908 the only contribution I made was the $2,000 I paid to Mr.
Sheldon," said Mr. Morgan. "The only memorandum I find is $10,000 in cash. I do not remember the details—where or how."

"Did you contribute to the 1912 pre-convention campaign of any candidate?" asked Clapp.

"No sir."
"Did your assistants?"
"No, sir."
"Or any one in your behalf."
"No sir."

"Did the $100,000 represent a personal contribution?" Senator Paynter demanded.

WOODLAND BALL A BIG SUCCESS

The F. R. A. scored a hit Tuesday evening by giving the woodland ball as the first of their big series. The entire hall was covered with trees, colored leaves and ferns and the decorating committee gave evidence of their artistic work in this line, by having the hall resemble a natural grove. The ladies' reception room, which had been decorated as a fairy dell, was used as a refreshment room where the dancers were served with these dainties by the six young ladies who took part as the woodland nymphs. A number of out of town guests were present to take part in the festivities.

With the pleasant surroundings, best of music and animated dancers
the affair was a big social success.

Y. W. C. A. IN CHARGE

The Y. W. C. A. of the normal

this week when it led the entire stu-

the excited crowd among the bluffs east of the city and through many meadows. The "chase" began this afternoon and will not end until evening, when the "hunters" will assemble at some convenient grove and enjoy refreshments. Sandwiches, coffee and wafers were to be served by the association girls. A trail of corn starting from the school furnished the trail which showed the guests the way to the grounds. It is a novel form of entertainment and provided much fun for the students and also served as a means for getting acquainted.

Interested in Results
"Were you much interested in the result of the campaign in a business

"I was of course," said Morgan, apparently grateful for the query.

to the republican campaign.

"If you will allow me to say it, I don't think there was any combination of interests in favor of the republican nominee in 1904, not to my knowledge."

"I mean a small conference of large interests," Pomerene insisted.
"Not to my knowledge," repeated Morgan emphatically.

"Was there any conference looking to the nomination of any man on the democratic ticket who would be suitable to the financial interests of New York?"

"I do not remember any."
"Was there any amount pledged by the financial interests to the democratic fund?"

"Not so far as I know."
"Do you know of any other funds which were subscribed to the republicans in 1904?"

"I do not," said Morgan.
"Do you know the amount the republican national committee was ar-rying to raise?"

"I never knew about it; I didn't know what they wanted. My interest was gone when I gave them my share."

"It was yours to give and theirs to ask?" suggested Pomerene.
"That was it," Morgan acquiesced.

Duell Takes Stand
Judge Charles H. Duell of New York, assistant treasurer of the republican national committee in 1904 was then called.

Duell said he and Bliss alternated in balancing the book accounts. He said he knew three insurance companies contributed $50,000 each, but never heard of the first $100,000
Archbold or Standard Oil contributions.

"Did you ever talk with Bliss about contributions after 1904?"
"I had a conversation with him.
He told me that in 1896 every bank and trust company contributed; in 1900 there were less; in 1904 very few such donations."

Mystery of Life and Death.
In many cases of death, as for instance from drowning, the tissues remain absolutely unchanged, yet where there was life before there is now no life; something has gone out that coordinated the physical and chemical forces of the body, kept them at work, prevented them from interfering with each other, kept the cells in equilibrium and was the source of all the energy in the body. There is the baffling mystery of life—and of death.

More Touching.
Ethereal Creature—"So you hate our sex. Your life has probably never been touched by a woman." Practical One—"Nope, ma'am; but my pocketbook was once."—Judge.

Roman Altar Unearthed.
On the site of the Roman city at Corstoptum—Corbridge, Northumberland—has been found a large altar bearing the inscription: "To the discipline of the Emperors (dedicated by) the Second (Augustan) Legion." A stone originally erected by the Seventh Cohort of the Thirteenth Legion and a relief of Hercules brandishing a club have also been found there.

French Chalk.
French chalk is especially good for cleaning embroidery that is too fragile to be washed with soap and water. The chalk should be made quite hot and sprinkled thickly over the embroidery, which is then rolled up carefully so that the chalk is inside.
Allow it to stand in a dark place for a week or two, and then shake out all the chalk. This will leave the embroidery quite fresh.

Completely Finished.

FOND DU LAC IS TOP OF THE HEAP

Leads Y. M. C. A. League in Membership Campaign; La Crosse in Third Place

WAUSAU IS ONE AHEAD

Local Campaigners Are Speeding Up for a Whirlwind Finish

With a gain of 47 made yesterday, the La Crosse Y. M. C. A. is now in third place in the list of standings of the four state associations that are engaged in a membership contest.

The standings are:

	Total	Gain
Fond du Lac	431	6
Wausau	244	12
La Crosse	243	47
Eau Claire	241	63

That Fond du Lac is leading is due, according to the officers of the local association, to the fact that their membership plan has been different than that of the La Crosse and Eau Claire institutions. The latter's memberships all expire on the same date, October 1, while much of the Fond du Lac and Wausau membership still have some time to run.

Arguing from this, Secretary A. C. Bran today declared that the finish will see La Crosse and Eau Claire fighting for the top place in the percentage column. He says that Fond du Lac and Wausau have but few renewals to fall back upon, owing to the fact that their memberships are mostly still running, and that their gains must be all new members.

Eau Claire is the real contender with La Crosse. Y. M. C. A. enthusiasm is strong there. They have just completed a new building, and the association is a new thing in the town. They have organized a general membership campaign, too, in the shape of two major leagues with eight teams in each, and are making big strides. It is feared that when he returns come in tonight they will be ahead of La Crosse.

The local "Y" however, is making a strong effort today to corral the 47 members needed to bring their total up to 300, and expect to reach that mark before evening.

ALICE MCGREGOR WINS

Alice McGregor, C. L. Hood's fast little mare, took first from a field of seven trotters in the 2:17 trot at Saraboo yesterday. Five heats were necessary to decide the race. W. N. Dillard of La Crosse drove Alice McGregor to her victory.

VACATION TO HARVEST CROPS

FARGO, N. D., Oct. 3.—All male students in North Dakota colleges and high schools have been given a two weeks' vacation by the school boards to help harvest the crop. It is estimated 5,000 men are needed in North Dakota alone. Many members of the Fargo Commercial club will also go into the fields, believing that their example will inspire others.

The prosperity of the state depends upon a minimum delay in the completion of the harvest, they say.

FIVE KILLED AS TRAIN HITS AUTO

Minister and Party in Machine Meet Death at Pittsburg Grade Crossing

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 3.—Five persons were killed and four injured when train No. 47 on the Pennsylvania railroad, westbound, crashed into an auto at the Death Trap grade crossing in Wilkensburg, a suburb, today.

The dead: Rev. W. L. Nicholson, of Wilmerding; Charles Nicholson, aged 3, son of Rev. Nicholson; Mrs. Mary Diamond; John E. Beck, and an unknown Italian girl.

Beck was driving Rev. Nicholson and the minister's son to Wilkensburg's silver jubilee celebration this afternoon, when the machine and the train collided.

Mrs. Diamond was pushing a baby carriage and the auto killed her and the baby was hurt. The unknown Italian girl was killed in a similar manner.

GIVES ADVICE TO PASTORS

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—At the Rock River conference today Bishop William T. McDowell gave striking advice to ministers. He counseled them to "use force, a big stick," if necessary, to prevent the telling of risque stories in their presence. He advised them to shun the evils of laziness, tendency to tell risque stories, lack of humility, jealousy and vanity and tendency to be suspicious of others, especially brother ministers. He also told them that the wearing of clean linen was essential to the usefulness of a preacher.

DAVIES SAYS DIXON LIED

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—"The statement of Senator Dixon, campaign manager of the third term party, that $38,000 was expended by me in the west, is absolutely untrue," said Joseph E. Davies, western manager of the democratic party, today. "I will welcome the opportunity to tell the committee exactly what was spent and how it was spent."

PASS WORD TO HANG SQUEALER

Convicts Who Lynched Negro Refuse to Tell Who Were the Ring-leaders

RAWLINS, Wyo., Oct. 3.—The first man that squeals is the next man hung was the word passed about today among the convicts at the state penitentiary here, following the lynching yesterday of Frank Wigfall.

Warden Alston, on orders from the governor, today began a searching investigation of the affair, with little hope of locating the ring leaders. The convicts who participated acted so quickly that Wigfall was hanging at the end of the rope before the outside prison guards reached the scene.

One of the convicts is said to have told the warden that the prisoners killed Wigfall because they didn't want to associate in the prison with such a monster.

ACCEPT OFFER OF THEATER MANAGER

If 2,000 tickets are sold at the La Crosse theater by tomorrow night, the visiting nurse fund of the Humane society will be the richer by $100. This is the proposition made by Manager McWilliams of the theater, which has been accepted by the directors of the Humane society. As a result many people are buying from one to two dozen tickets to the motion picture house, in the effort to get Mr. McWilliams to aid the cause.

The feature attraction which they will see who buy tickets to the theater is a two reel Vitaphone reproduction of Rip Van Winkle, as played by Joseph Jefferson. Robert McWade, Sr., for many years associated in the play with Joe Jefferson, is in the title role, and the play is as nearly a perfect reproduction of the Jefferson production as possible.

Those who buy more than one ticket can use them at any time they see fit. The only restriction imposed by Mr. McWilliams is that the tickets be bought at the box office before close of business Friday night. The big feature reel is to be shown tomorrow afternoon and evening.

SAY OLD PROPHETS WERE SPIRITUALISTS

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 3.—The prophets of old were spiritualist trance mediums, members of the city council of St. Louis have heard, and today they are debating on the passing of a bill to drive all mediums, clairvoyants and palmists from the city.

A delegation of spiritualists appeared before the council and argued against the bill. "Moses, Peter, Paul, Christ, Saul, David and the apostles were inspired by the spirits of those gone before them into the spirit world," Dr. J. Warren of Chicago, president of the National Spiritualists' association declared.

"If Moses came to St. Louis with such a law as you propose enforced, he would be fined $500, and if he couldn't pay he would be put in the workhouse to serve a term."

THANKS GOD FOR FATHER'S DEPARTURE

Martin Veck, a farmer residing in the town of Farmington, pleaded guilty to the charge of assault upon his father, John Veck, in county court this morning and paid a fine of $12.12.

According to the evidence, Veck threw his father out of the house, using more than necessary violence. When Judge Brindley announced the fine Mr. Veck called upon God to witness his gratitude for permitting him to get rid of his father at such a low cost.

Veck pleaded guilty to assaulting his father who still bore marks of the conflict and when the judge offered him his choice of a thirty day sentence or a fine of $12.12, Veck exclaimed, "I got the money down stairs, judge, and I thank God for getting rid of him so cheap!" Veck paid the fine with a smile.

Patrolman at Side of Murderer Sees Thief Steal His Wheel

While on guard at the bed side of John Peterson, the murderer of Mrs. Sever Ytre, at St. Francis hospital yesterday afternoon, Patrolman William Horshack witnessed the theft of his bicycle.

Seeing a man approach and start off with the bicycle, Horshack thrust his head through the window and in his lowest bass tones, commanded the culprit to stop.

His command having no effect Horshack became excited and ringing for the hospital attendants, left Peterson in their charge while he pressed an automobile into service and gave chase. John McVey, who gives Philadelphia as his home was overtaken with the bicycle at Twelfth and Market streets.

When arraigned in court this morning McVey pleaded drunkenness and was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

PUT DIXON IN ANANIAS CLUB

Democratic Leaders Say They Will Show He Mis-stated Their Expenditures

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Democratic national committee heads today branded as false Senator Dixon's testimony before the campaign committee investigating in Washington yesterday concerning democratic pre-convention expenditures. Chairman McCombs, Acting Chairman McAdoo, T. J. Spence, acting chairman of the finance committee and S. G. Penfield, announced that they were ready to testify whenever called.

In a statement issued by Spence, he said in part:

"Mr. McCombs, Mr. McAdoo, myself and Mr. Penfield will go to Washington to testify at any time we are called. The evidence we shall give will put Dixon in the Ananias club."

"When we give our testimony we will bring good memories along with us, something that Senator Dixon did not do."

S. G. Penfield, who Dixon claimed had given $46,000 to the pre-convention campaign of Gov. Wilson, denied that he had given such a sum.

ICE WAGON IS HIT BY TRAIN

Not noticing a train which was coming south after a north bound train had just left, one of the wagons belonging to the People's Ice & Fuel company was run into by a C. M. & St. P. train at the Vine street crossing at the station and the wagon was smashed badly while the driver, F. Seefred, was thrown from the wagon and slightly hurt. One of the horses was injured but will recover.

A passenger train was going north and the team waited for it to pass. Another train was coming south but it was hidden from view by the train which was going north so Seefred could not see it and thinking that the crossing was clear he drove his team across. The south bound train struck the team, threw Seefred from the wagon and injured one of the horses. The wagon which was loaded with ice, was badly smashed.

TRY ROBBER ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Alleged Canadian Bank Thief Held to Answer for Beating Up Officer

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—James W. Stacey, alias Doc Danzell, accused as one of the gang of bank robbers that looted the New Westminster branch of the Bank of Montreal of $272,000, was arraigned today before Municipal Judge Hopkins on a charge of assault, and remanded till October 14, in lieu of $10,000 bonds.

Stacey was caught in St. Louis and brought here on the charge of having beaten and disarmed Police Lieutenant Burns, when the latter tried to arrest him and other alleged members of the gang in this city. Stacey claims to be nothing more than a scholarly beggar. When given a ride in Acting Chief Schuetter's auto he recited poetry on being questioned about the robbery. He was handcuffed and manacled and hurried away from court to prevent service of a possible habeas corpus writ. If he escapes on the charge of assault, Stacey will be charged with the theft of Lieutenant Burns' revolver.

CORCORAN CASE IS BEFORE COMMITTEE

A meeting of the liquor license committee of the city council has been called for Monday night when the matter of revoking the saloon license of Edward Corcoran will be taken up. Court records show that Corcoran recently pleaded guilty to the charge of selling liquor to a posted man and was fined. Under the ordinances governing saloon regulation the license of any saloon keeper may be revoked by the city council for violation of this section. It is probable that Corcoran will be given a hearing before the council soon.

PRAIRIE MILLS DAMAGED BY FIRE

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, Wis., Oct. 1.—The Prairie du Chien Woolen Mills suffered a destructive fire on Tuesday evening, the alarm being turned in about 7:30 and the fire department working until past midnight to control and put out the fire. The fire started from spontaneous combustion in the wool storage bins and spread with great rapidity to the carding room, where the most expensive machinery in the plant is located. A large force of volunteers assisted the fire company and the stock of manufactured products was carried from the building to a place of safety. However, the engine room, dyeing and spinning rooms were saved from material damage. The five carding machines, each worth $3,000, are badly damaged and that end of the building is almost totally destroyed. The factory employs about 100 workers, most of whom will now be out of employment until the mill can resume operations, which will be about January 1. Work will be begun immediately upon repairing and reconstructing the mills. The factory is owned by a stock company, and a directors' meeting

SULZER WINS AT LAST

NEW YORK CONGRESSMAN IS CHOSEN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR AFTER YEARS OF STRUGGLE

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 3.—"Billy" Sulzer has come into his own. The ambition of the New York congressman, who is proudest when told that he "looks like Henry Clay," has been realized after years of struggling and he is today the candidate of the "first unbossed" state convention held in many years by the democracy of the empire state, for the highest office in the state. The convention, which nominated Sulzer after a session that lasted well into today was one of the most remarkable in the recent history of the state. His candidacy, ever since he was a member of the assembly at Albany, has been persistent, but every time that he seemed to have the coveted nomination in his grasp, the leaders have vetoed his selection. He has organized a band of his own personal friends, and has tramped up and down the state, organizing delegates for his cause, only to have them snatched from him when the decisive moment came.

PORTUGAL TO PROSPER

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Cyrus E. Woods, United States minister at Lisbon, who has been spending a short vacation in England, is optimistic over the future of Portugal.

"There are innumerable indications," he said, "that Portugal is on the eve of a new era of prosperity. Vast irrigation works are to be constructed to aid agriculture, and I know of no country richer in mineral resources. Portugal suffers from a lack of capital, but that is forthcoming now, for it is only recently that financiers and big industrial corporations in America and England have realized the full possibilities of this hitherto dormant country."

STRIKE AGAINST UNION

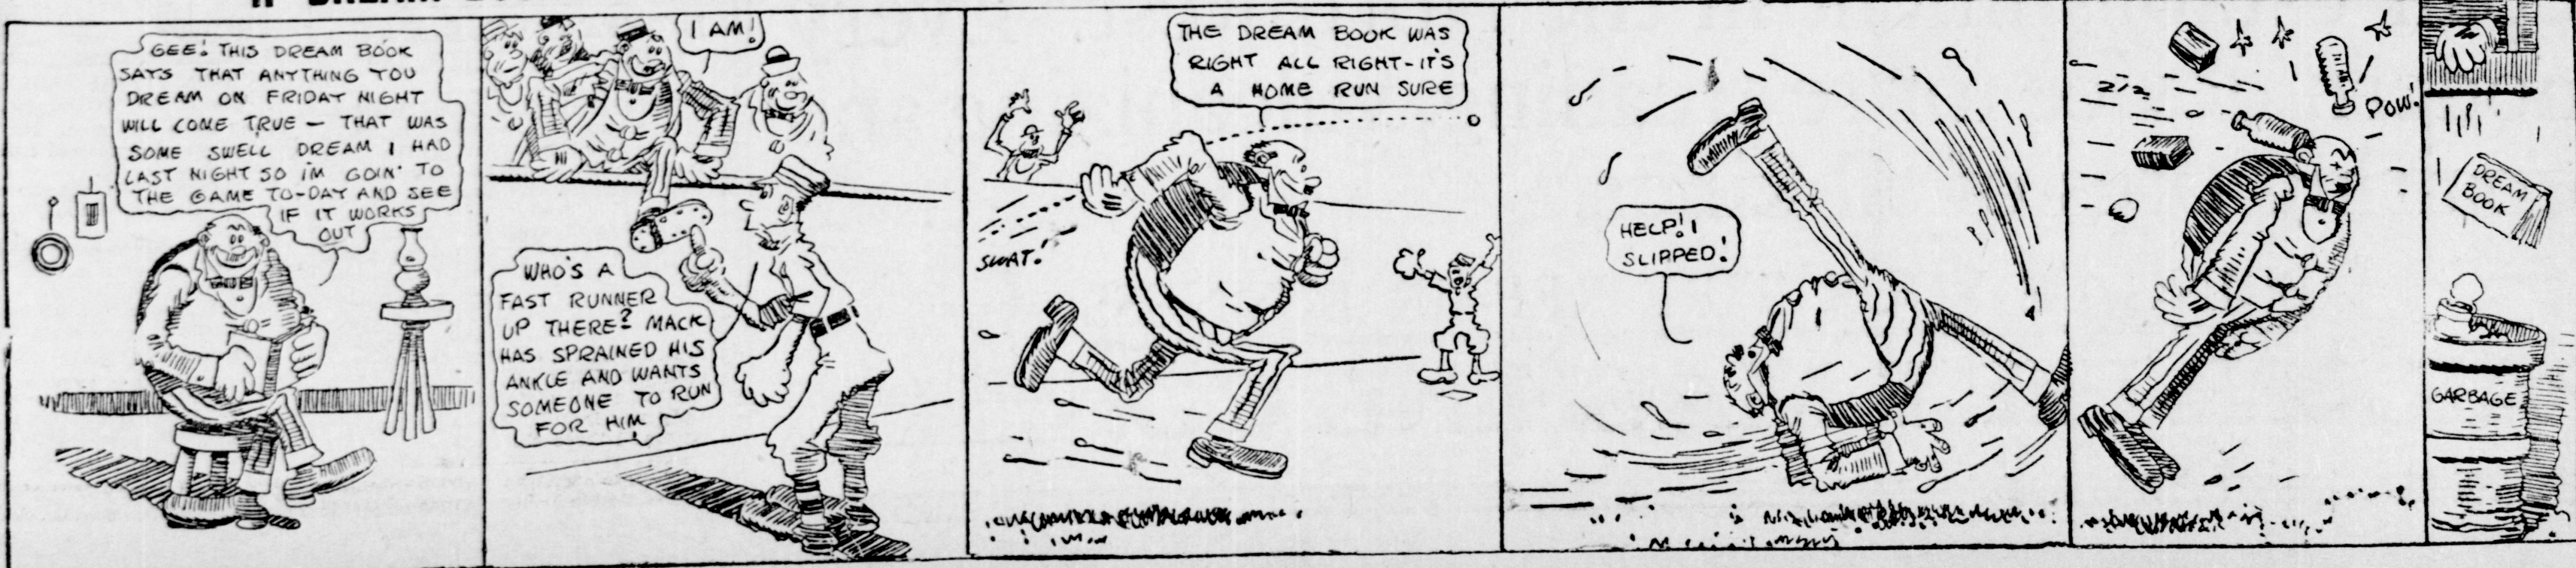

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The novel situation of a strike against a trade union is promised unless the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants, England's biggest railway union, raises the wages of a number of its clerks. The pay is $7.25 per week, or $1.25 less than the minimum recognized by the National Union of Clerks. The A. S. R. S. decided that if their employees didn't like the money offered they could leave it, and a strike is thought to be inevitable.

Don't Poison Baby.

Forty years ago almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without your or your physician knowing of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

THOMPSON URGES SOCIALIST PLAN

Would Give Laborer His Full Reward for His Labor; Speaks at Old "Y"

Declaring that abolition of the senate, direct legislation, direct election of the president, limitation of the power of the supreme court and universal suffrage are necessary steps in the elimination of the present capitalist system, Carl D. Thompson, socialist candidate for governor, urged La Crosse voters to rally to the support of these measures, in an address given at the old Y. M. C. A. building Tuesday night.

Mr. Thompson, who was formerly city clerk of Milwaukee and is a well known speaker, quoted statistics, according to which there is $1,400 worth of property for every person in the world.

He severely criticized the present system of regulating capital asserting that thousands of persons are forced to live on less than a living wage that a few may live in extravagance.

He said that the great aim of the socialists is to bring about conditions under which the laborers' reward for his labor will be sufficient to support his family in the proper manner.

Nearly 500 persons were crowded into the hall when J. J. Verchota, candidate for sheriff of La Crosse county, introduced Mr. Thompson.

TITANIC SURVIVORS SUE FOR DAMAGES

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 3.—Oscar Hedman and Carl Johnson, two survivors of the Titanic disaster of April 14, have each brought suit in district court against the Oceanic Steamship Navigation company, operating the White Star steamship line, for damages through injury and fright on the night of the disaster and for the loss of their baggage.

Hedman wants $10,000 for personal injuries and $1,522.80 for his baggage. Johnson sets his injury through terror at $10,000 and his baggage and personal effects he values at $468.

CHILD FOUND SLAIN

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mathilda Reis, 13 years old, daughter of Jacob Reis, 959 Beaufait avenue, was found murdered last night in an alley near her home. The child had been mistreated, her body was slashed with a sharp knife and her throat was cut.

No Task.

"Do you believe, as some teacher says, that boys ought to be encouraged to fight?" "Well, about in the same degree that ducks ought to be encouraged to swim."

Overcoming Action of Tides.

For use on rivers subject to great tidal changes an Alabama engineer has invented a floating wharf which runs up and down upon a solid incline laid with rails.

Useless Mechanism.

The New York inventor who has perfected a machine to tell a man when he is in love seems to be wasting his time and talents. The woman usually has a way of arranging these trifling details.

SAYS TURKEY IS MISJUDGED

Diplomat Says Moslem Nation Is Better than the Balkan Christians It Rules

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 3.—"The world doesn't know Turkey," said a diplomatic official long resident here today. "It is by people who in all their lives have scarcely seen Turk that the race is denounced. I have yet to meet the foreigner who, though roughly acquainted with them, did not admire them immensely."

"Their old government was very bad. But the people are among the finest in Europe. They are magnificent fighters if they must fight, but contrary to the popular fancy, they are perfectly peaceable and orderly when they are permitted to be."

"Most news despatches I have seen give the impression that the Christians of Macedonia are peace-loving, civilized people, ground down by a nation of savages. The truth is that these so-called Christians run to the highest average of desperate cut-throats imaginable. I don't say the Turks are highly civilized, but I do say their conviction compares favorably with Bulgaria, Servia, Greece or Montenegro."

SOUTH DAKOTA ELECTORS FOR T. R.

WATERTOWN, S. D., Oct. 3.—All doubt as to what the candidates for presidential electors on the republican ticket in South Dakota will do in casting their vote for president was removed today through a statement issued from the republican headquarters in this city. Try This Home-Made Cough Remedy Costs Little, But Does the Work Quickly, or Money Refunded.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You will find that this simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else you ever used. Usually ends a deep seated cough inside of 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, croup, chest pains, bronchitis and other throat troubles. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

This recipe makes more and better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasantly.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in gualacols and all the natural pine elements which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This plan of making cough syrup with Pinex and sugar syrup (or strained honey) has proven so popular throughout the United States and Canada that it is often imitated. But the old, successful formula has never been equalled.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

WILSON IS ATTRACTION

GOVERNOR'S ADDRESS IS FEATURE OF TODAY'S SESSION OF CONSERVATION ANNUAL CONGRESS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 3.—Gov. Woodrow Wilson was the star attraction at the National Conservation congress here today. He was scheduled to arrive at noon, and later speak at the Coliseum, at the state fair grounds. He will also make a political speech at Washington baseball park tonight.

Governor Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri, who was scheduled to speak this afternoon at the Coliseum, will not be here until tomorrow, according to announcement today. Early last night, Thomas R. Shipp, secretary of the congress, announced that Hadley would tonight make his first speech of the campaign for President Taft. Owing to the fact that Wilson and Judge Ben Lindsay were to speak here tonight, the latter for Col. Roosevelt, the republicans had difficulty in finding a suitable building in which to hold the Hadley meeting.

Later it was announced that Hadley would be unable to come today owing to official duties at home, but will speak tomorrow night.

FIRE IN NEWSPAPER PLANTS

KANKAKEE, Ill., Oct. 3.—Fire early today destroyed 250,000 worth of property, the plants of three newspapers, so that none was published today. The fire started from crossed wires in the new Remington theater building, and before daylight communicated to one-third of the structures in the business section. At one time the fire threatened the whole town. Sixteen structures were wholly or partly burned.

MADAM! IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT TAKE DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS"

Waste-clogged bowels, torpid liver and decaying food in stomach cause the sick headache, gas, backache, sallowness, biliousness and indigestion.

All women get bilious, headachy and constipated — simply because they don't exercise enough. They don't eat coarse food, or enough fruit and green vegetables. Those are nature's ways of keeping the liver and thirty feet of bowels active; but very few women employ them. The next best way is delightful, fruity Syrup of Figs.

Nearly all ills of women can be overcome with Syrup of Figs alone. There is no need to have sick headache, backache, dizziness, stomach sour and full of gases, bilious spells, sallowness, coated tongue, bad breath, bad complexion, nervousness and depression. The surest and safest remedy is one or two teaspoonfuls of delicious Syrup of Figs. Try this tonight—you'll feel splendid in the morning when the sour bile, clogged up waste and poisonous matter have been gently but thoroughly moved on and out of your system, without nausea, griping or weakness. Your head will be clear, complexion rosy, breath sweet, stomach regulated, no more constipation, gases, pains and aches.

It is simply a matter of keeping your stomach, liver and bowels clean and regular. Then you will always be well—always look and feel your best.

But get the genuine—the old reliable. Ask your druggist for "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna." Refuse, with contempt, the so-called Fig Syrups sometimes substituted to fool you. The true, genuine, bears the name California Fig Syrup Company; look for this on the label—Advertisement.

GIRL SWIMMER OF PACIFIC COAST WINS NEW LAURELS, BREAKS OLD RECORDS

Nell Schmidt leaving ocean after record-breaking swim, beside life boat that accompanied her.

Nell Schmidt of Alameda, Cal., has long been credited as being the greatest woman swimmer the Pacific coast has ever seen, but her recent performance of swimming almost a mile round the Seal rocks off the Cliff house in San Francisco bay, fighting the tides and current rips all the way, and doing the distance in 34 minutes 50 seconds, is a feat worthy of being heralded to the world at large. Her latest feat firmly establishes her right to greater honors than coast champion—it proves the right of her claim of being the speed champion in open water.

In the accompanying picture Mrs. Schmidt is seen leaving the ocean, as fresh as when she went in, beside the life boat that accompanied her.

WISCONSIN NEWS

BRAY OPENS TAFT CAMPAIGN TODAY

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 3.—William M. Bray, Oshkosh, appointed manager of the Taft campaign in Wisconsin by the republican national committee at a meeting in Chicago Monday, will open headquarters in Oshkosh today, and will begin an active campaign at once. INDEPENDENCE MAN FOUND IN MILL-POND

INDEPENDENCE, Wis., Oct. 3.—After a search of two weeks in which scores of persons participated, the body of Michael Blaha, 38 years old, who mysteriously disappeared September 17, was found yesterday in the mill pond here. VIROQUA WOODMEN JUMP ON EKER

VIROQUA, Wis., Oct. 3.—Vernon county Modern Woodmen, representing twenty camps and 1,200 members, held a picnic and conference at the county seat Monday. John L. Sundeen, insurgent leader against the proposed rate increase, delivered a telling address. Resolutions adopted pledge members of the order to vote against candidates for state offices and members of the legislature who fail to promise in writing to vote for repeal of present laws unfavorable to fraternal insurance associations. A demand in the resolution is for the removal of Insurance Commissioner Eker by the governor, charging him with being meddlesome, or misguided.

WHY DON'T YOU TAKE BETTER CARE OF YOUR HAIR?

Don't let it turn grey. Don't let the Dandruff get a foothold and start the hair falling out.

It's not natural that young women should have thin grey hair that they cannot dress becomingly.

It should always be natural-colored—luxuriant—full of life and radiance—free from ugly grey hairs and annoying Dandruff. Nature intended that a woman's hair should be one of her chief attractions.

Why not help her to keep it so?

Chicago Grain Review

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—As a net result of the bullish war talk and the bearish political and weather conditions wheat wobbled and was generally lower, although the decline was not marked.

Corn was up fractionally on good demand, although favorable weather conditions over the corn belt bid much to suppress the talk of soft corn.

Oats were practically stationary. The provision market had a strong undertone and offerings were light.

SPORTING NEWS

GIANTS LOSE TO PHILLIES 2 TO 1

Champs Defeated in Slab Duel; Boston Beats the Dodgers, While Cubs Down Pirates

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Philadelphia 2; New York 1
NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The Giants were again beaten by the Phillies yesterday in the final game of the season between the two clubs by a score of 2 to 1. The Phillies won the game in the fourth inning, getting two runs on two singles, two sacrifices, a pass and a wild pitch. Score: R H E Philadelphia .000200000—2 6 1 New York .010000000—1 6 0 Batteries: Seaton and Killifer; Ames, Wiltse and Hartley.

Boston 3-7; Brooklyn 2-6
BOSTON, Oct. 3.—The Braves took both games of a doubleheader from the Dodgers yesterday by scores of 3 to 2 and 7 to 6. The visitors were outth and outplayed at every stage of the program. They seemed to have the second half clinched until the sixth inning, when the Braves drove Allen from the box with a fusillade of bingles that netted three runs. Scores: R H E First game— R H E Brooklyn .010100000—2 5 1 Boston .000003000—3 9 1 Batteries: Allen, Stack and Miller; Tyler and Rariden.

Second game— R H E
Brooklyn .030000102—6 9 3 Boston .30101002X—7 12 2 Batteries: Knetzer and Erwin; Perdue, McTigue and Rariden.

Chicago 6; Pittsburgh 5
CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—The Cubs managed to grab the final game of the series from the Pirates 6 to 5 yesterday. Dick Cotter, batting out of his turn, drove the winning tally over in the tenth inning. Pittsburgh apparently did not notice that something was being put over. Cotter came up in the ninth to bat for Good, who had originally been sent in to bat for Jim Lavender. He cracked out a single that brought Williams in from third with the run that tied the score. Cotter then went behind the bat and caught Pittsburgh's tenth, which was barren of results. In the Cub half, with one run needed, Cotter came to bat again, entirely out of turn, and rapped another single, scoring Schulte, with the winning run. Score: R H E Chicago .200002001—6 11 0 Pittsburgh .0010030100—5 12 2 Batteries: Camnitz, Robinson and Gibson; Lavender, Smith, Archer and Cotter.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Chicago 8; Detroit 5
DETROIT, Oct. 3.—The White Sox trimmed the Tigers, 8 to 5 yesterday in a slapstick combat, but not until Walsh sat in and took a hand. Heavy swatting on both sides marked the prolonged program. In the third a high leave by Weaver and Veach's single gave the Tigers another run. Meanwhile the Sox were rude to Johnson. They tripped him for a pair of runs in the second and in the third. In the fifth and sixth seven slams netted five runs and the game. The score: R H E Chicago .021023000—8 14 3 Detroit .010000010—5 12 1 Batteries: Cicotte, Walsh and Sullivan; Johnson and Onslow.

Cleveland 4; St. Louis 2
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 3.—When Pitcher Allison tried to pass Lajoie yesterday the latter reached out and sent a triple over the left fielder's head, driving in two runs and winning for the Naps, 4 to 2. Lajoie's error in the preceding inning had given the Browns one run and a chance. The score: R H E Cleveland .010000030—4 7 2 St. Louis .000000200—2 8 2 Batteries: Blanding and O'Neill; Hamilton, Allison and Alexander.

Brightening Oil Paintings.
To clean and brighten oil paintings sponge the painting very carefully with a pure soap and lukewarm water and dry thoroughly with a soft cloth. With a piece of chamois skin dipped in sweet oil rub all over the surface of the picture. The result will be a pleasant surprise. This cannot injure the finest work of art in the least.

What She Remembered.
"I suppose," says the lady next door, "that you saw many really wonderful places while you were abroad." "Yes, indeed," replies the returned traveler. "I think the most shivery of them all, however, was the cat-corners in Rome. I have the nightmare about it yet."—Judge.

Thoughtful Father.
A Fort Scott father sent his daughter's "steady" home in a hurry the other night by calling down the stairs: "Mary, if the young man is afraid to go alone tell him to wait a few minutes and ride home with the milkman."—Kansas City Star.

Compensation.
A little girl who had been out walking with her aunt heard the latter complain that her feet were tired. "My feet get tired, too, when I go out walking," said the small maiden, "but I always think what a nice ride my stomach has been having."

TRAINING TABLE AT THE HIGH

Football Warriors to Prepare for Struggle with Normal School Team

Another mass meeting was held at the high school this morning to arouse more enthusiasm for the game with the normal school at the League grounds on Saturday afternoon. John Robinson, the new cheer leader, instilled all sorts of life into the crowd and has the ability to make them yell and sing together. The following are some new songs added to the list of songs and yells used last year:

(Tune of Way Down in Dixie)
We're going to cheer, we're going to cheer, we're going to cheer.
Our team to victory
With Wiebrecht, Marshall and McCahan

For center, Borge, sure is the man
We're going to beat, we're going to beat, we're going to beat
Those Normal fellows
When Garder flashes 'round the end
L. C. H. S. that's the way you yell it

For we're going to beat, we're going to beat
That normal team.
(Tune Tammany.)

La Crosse High, La Crosse High
U rah, rah, rah La Crosse High
U rah, rah, rah La Crosse High
La Crosse High, La Crosse High
Smash 'em, Bust 'em
That's our custom
La Crosse High.

(Hot Time)
Cheer boys cheer, La Crosse has got the ball
U rah, O won't they take a fall
When we hit their line they will have no line at all

There will be a hot time in La Crosse tonight.
Coach Sells is putting the football men through a hard training system for this game. He has established a training table at noon and has the men for an hour's signal drill then. After school he has two hours' signal drill and scrimmage, and then after supper another hour's work. This is a stiff program, but will show results when the team battles with the normals for the city championship on Saturday.

FAN-ATICAL FANCIES
Four La Crosse men, Keeler, Stavrum, Maurer and Davis are trying out for the Wisconsin football team this year and all are linemen who should make good bids for positions on the eleven.

FAN-ATICAL FANCIES

Most of the big university football teams are being led by captains who play in the backfield as Pendleton of Princeton, Wendell of Harvard, Spalding of Yale, Mercer of Pennsylvania, Thorpe of Carlisle, Thompson of Michigan and Tobin of Minnesota all play behind the line. Judging by the play in the first games of the year it appears that as a general rule the backfields are exceptionally strong this season while the lines are rather weak.

The chances are that the Minnesota team, which has been such a power in western football for the last few seasons, is doomed to lose its high position this year for the play of the Gophers last Saturday indicates that the team is not up to the standard of former years. For the most part Coach Williams has to develop green material for with the exception of Captain Tobin there is not a veteran on the squad.

It is rumored that Pendleton, captain of the Princeton football team, may join the New York Americans at the close of the college year next June when he graduates. Pendleton has starred in the outfield for the Princeton nine and his playing has been so good that it is thought that he can make good in the major leagues. While he has not as yet announced whether or not he will play baseball after he graduates, it is said that he may decide to enter the big leagues next year as he is a good hitter, a reliable fielder and a good baserunner. His friends claim that he is as fast if not faster than Ty Cobb and they say that he will demonstrate this if he plays baseball next year. Pendleton can play either the infield or outfield.

The Boston Red Sox have already beaten the American League record of 102 victories for the season which was established in 1910 by the Athletics for up to date they have won 103 games. With several more games to play it seems probable that the Red Sox will beat the league record by a few games.

Jardinieres should be thoroughly scrubbed and scalded every few weeks, or they become sour and cause the plants kept in them to become full of earthworms. They should be sunned occasionally, in addition to the scrubbing and scalding.—Suburban Life.

M'LEAN WITH BROWNS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 3.—Larry McLean, catcher of the Reds, who was cast adrift by Manager O'Day about a month ago, is looking for a job with the St. Louis Browns. McLean conferred with Manager Stovall, Stovall believes he can keep Larry in the straight and narrow path, and the big catcher is believed to have a good chance of landing a job.

What Was the Text?

"I select my text," began the young layman, "from the Book of Nature. It is inscribed on every leaf, which clings to every tree, in the library of the forest—the latter clause of the fourth branch, and the third twig."—Judge.

Land Lingers in the Memory.

Some one has aptly said: "Burma is the land of regrets, because people who have been there are never the same again. There lives always in their hearts a regret for the land they have left behind."

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

Larry Lajoie beat the St. Louis team when he reached up and clouted a high one intended for a fourth ball, drove the sphere into deep left and scored two Naps.

Again the umpires made fair decisions and Fogel's Phillies took the last game of the season at the Polo grounds. It was a 2 to 1 victory.

Twenty-one hits were made by the Tigers and White Sox. The latter recorded one hit more than their opponents and took the game, 8 to 5.

The Braves had a real team in the field and thanks to Kirke's stick. They copped two from Brooklyn.

In the ninth inning of the Cub-Pirate game, Cotter was set to bat for Lavender and produced the hit that tied the game. In the tenth Cotter went to bat in Archer's turn, when he and whom he had in the meantime relieved, instead of batting last on the list. No one woke up until Cotter had won the game with a single. Later, Manager Clarke of the Pirates wired President Lynch protesting the game and without waiting for the decision, the Cub management volunteered to play the game over. Under the rules, Cotter was out as soon as he went to bat, which would have made the game a tie, 5 to 5. The game is scheduled today.

"I Acknowledge the Corn."

A slave was charged with stealing corn found in his possession. Having a sack with him, he was also charged with stealing that. He replied: "I 'knowledge de corn, but I ain't gwine to 'knowledge de sack."
